By the QUEEN,

A PROCLAMATION,

CONTAINING

Her Majesties Declaration,

That it is Expedient, That the Lords of Parliament of England, and Commons of the present Parliament of England, should be the Members of the respective Houses of the First Parliament of Great Britain, for and on the part of England.

ANNE R.

WHereas by the Two and twentieth Article of the Treaty of Union of the Two Kingdoms of England and Scotland, as the same have been Ratified and Confirmed by Two Acts of Parliament, the one Passed in the Parliament of England, the other in the Parliament of Scotland, It is agreed, That if We, on or before the First Day of May next, on which Day the Union is to take place, should Declare under the Great Seal of England, That it is Expedient, That the Lords of Parliament of England, and Commons of the present Parliament of England, should be the Members of the respective Houses of the First Parliament of Great Britain, for and on the part of England, Then the said Lords of Parliament of England, and Commons of the present Parliament of England should be the Members of the respective Houses of the First Parliament of Great Britain, for and on the part of England; and that the Time and Place of the Meeting of the First Parliament of Great Britain being Appointed by Us, by Our Royal Proclamation, under the Great Seal of Great Britain, the Lords of Parliament of England, and the Sixteen Peers of Scotland, who are, by Virtue of the Articles of Union, to Sit and Vote in the House of Lords, and the Members of the House of Commons of the said Parliament of England, and the Five and forty Representatives of Scotland, in the House of Commons of the Parliament of Great Britain, should Assemble and Meet respectively in the respective Houses of the Parliament of Great Britain, at such Time and Place as should be so Appointed by Us, and should be the Two Houses of the First Parliament of Great Britain: And We having taken into Our Royal Consideration the present Circumstances of Affairs, do Judge it to be for the Good of Our Kingdoms, That the Lords of Parliament of England, and the Commons of the present Parliament of England, should be the Members of the respective Houses of the First Parliament of Great Britain, for and on the part of England; And We do, pursuant to the said Articles of Union, hereby Declare, under Our Great Seal of England, That it is Expedient, That the Lords of Parliament of England, and Commons of the present Parliament of England, which now stands Prorogued to the Thirtieth Day of this Instant April, should be the Members of the respective Houses of the First Parliament of Great Britain, for and on the part of England; And the Lords of Parliament of England, and Commons of the present Parliament of England, are accordingly to be the Members of the respective Houses of the First Parliament of Great Britain, for and on the part of England.

Given at Our Court at St. James's the Nine and twentieth Day of April, Anno Dom. 1707. In the Sixth Year of Our Reign.

GOD save the QUEEN.

Kensington, April 30. The following Address from the West-Riding of the County of York, was presented to Her Majesty by the Rt. Hon. Henry Boyle Esq; Chancellor of Her Majesty's Exchequer, and Lord-Lieutenant of the West-Riding of the County of York during the Minority of the Rt. Hon. the Earl of Burlington.

To the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Deputy-Lieutenants, Justices of the Peace, Gentlemen, and Grand Jury, assembled at the General Quarter-Sessions of the Peace, at Pontefract, for the West-Riding of the County of York, the 22d Day of April, 1707.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, Your Majesty's most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, humbly beg Leave to Congratulate Your Majesty on the Happy Union of the Two Kingdoms of England and Scotland: A Work that could never have been effected, but by the Unparallel'd Wisdom of Your Majesty, and Your Tender Concern for the Welfare and Happiness of all Your Subjects.

We do assure Your Majesty, That we will use all Endeavours to improve the Good Consequences of it; and will, to our utmost, defend Your Majesty and Your United Kingdoms against all Opposers whatsoever.

The following Address from the City of Chester, was presented to Her Majesty by the Rt. Hon. the Earl of Cholmondeley, Lord-Lieutenant of the County Palatine of Chester.

To the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriffs, and Citizens, of the City of Chester.

WHile the Prodigious Advances of Your Majesty's Arms upon the Continent, for the Common Safety of Europe, are celebrated through the World, permit us, (Most Gracious Sovereign) with Dutiful and Thankful Hearts, to acknowledge and admire Your Majesty's Assiduous Zeal for the Welfare of Your own People, and the Great Wisdom of Your Councils, which have been blessed with a Happy Success, in the Establishment of a Perpetual Union of this and our neighbouring Kingdom; whereby Your Majesty's Reign receives an Addition of Glory, deny'd to all Your Ancestors, and will transmit to succeeding Ages the most effectual Provision for the Honour and Safety of our whole Island.

We most earnestly beseech Almighty God, who hath hitherto distinguished Your Majesty as the Glorious Instrument and Dispenser of his Peculiar Favours, That Your Majesty's Sacred Person and Government, and all Your Undertakings, may be still assisted by the Continual Blessings of Heaven, and attended with the Loyal, Peaceful, and United Affections of Your Subjects; and that Your Majesty's Eminent Virtues and Tender Care for Your People, may, after a Long and Prosperous Reign over us, be at last rewarded with a Blessed Immortality. In Testimony whereof, we have hereunto affixed the Common Seal of the said City, the Twenty first Day of April, in the Sixth Year of Your Majesty's Reign, Annoq; Dom. 1707.

The following Address from the County of Bucks, was presented to Her Majesty by the Hon. William Egerton Esq; one of the Knights of the Shire for the said County; introduced by the Rt. Hon. the Lord High Treasurer.

To the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lord-Lieutenant, High Sheriff, Justices of the Peace, Grand Jury, and other the Freeholders, at the General Quarter-Sessions of the Peace holden at Aylesbury, in and for the County of Bucks, on Thursday the 24th Day of April, in the Sixth Year of Your Majesty's Reign.

May it please Your Majesty,

AS no People were ever more Prosperous under the Happy Influence of a Glorious Reign, so it is our Duty to take all Opportunities to manifest our Sincere Affections and Hearty Zeal to the Great Source from whence (under God) all our Blessings flow: And amongst all the Unexpected Successes that have attended Your Majesty's Prudent Conduct and Unweary'd Endeavours, nothing can make us appear more formidable Abroad, and secure at Home, than the long-wish'd-for Union of Your Two neighbouring Kingdoms; a Work of such Difficulty, that, tho' so often attempted by Your Royal Predecessors, it seemed reserved only to add fresh Glories to Your Majesty's most Auspicious Government.

May the same Spirit of Union, that has always inspir'd Your Majesty's Councils, prevent all Differences and Animosities amongst Your United Subjects. May Your Majesty enjoy a Long and Prosperous Reign over us, and at last receive the Reward of your Unexampled Care and Concern for the Welfare of all your Liege People and their Posterity.

The

The following Addreſs from the Borough of Stafford was preſented to Her Majeſty by Walter Chetwynd and Thomas Foley Eſqs; their Repreſentatives in Parliament; introduced by his Grace the Duke of Somerſet.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Capital Burgeſſes, Gentlemen, and others, of Your ancient Borough of Stafford.

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty,

SO remarkable are the Bleſſings of Your Majeſty's Reign, both in Your Arms and Councils, that as never Prince upon the Throne was more frequently Addreſs'd to, ſo never Prince gave juſter Occaſion to thankful Subjects for Sincerity of Addreſs. Your Majeſty's Tenderneſs for the Welfare of Your People of theſe two, as yet, diſtinct Kingdoms of this Iſland, cannot, by the Zeal You have ſhewn, but influence them as forceably from the Heart to a preſent Love and Liking of the Union, as that Law now paſs'd has provided for the Security of it. The Advantages on both ſides are mutual in the Hanover Succeſſion, upon which all the publick Intereſt of United Britain for Futurity muſt turn: And Your Majeſty has taken ſuch Meaſures otherwiſe for the Satisfaction of both Your People, as to enforce that of the Apoſtle, ſo far as is poſſible, to make them live peaceably one with another. This Teſtimony we humbly beg Leave to give to Your Sacred Majeſty, together with our Prayers for Your Majeſty's long, proſperous and peaceable Reign over all Your Subjects. Dated the 25th Day of April, in the 6th Year of Your Majeſty's bleſſed Reign over us.

The following Addreſs from the Corporation of Kendall was preſented to Her Majeſty by Colonel Grahme; introduced by the Rt. Hon. Mr. Secretary Harley.

WE Your Majeſty's loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Burgeſſes, and other Gentlemen, free Inhabitants of Your Corporation of Kendall in the County of Weſtmorland, do, with one Heart, beg Leave to approach Your Royal Preſence with our Congratulations. Every Day gives us freſh Occaſion to admire Your Majeſty's Piety and Prudence; but never was there a more Glorious one than the Union of the Two Kingdoms affords us: By it the Strength of the Iſland is ſo much increas'd, and the Proteſtant Succeſſion ſo effectually eſtabliſh'd to Poſterity, that future Ages will reap the Benefit as well as this, and may bleſs that God who inſpir'd Your Majeſty with Wiſdom to Effect ſo great a Work. May the ſame Providence preſerve Your Reign long over us; and may Your People be united in Hearts as they are in Intereſt, and no other Conteſts ever be amongſt them, than who ſhall be moſt Zealous to approve themſelves Your dutiful Subjects. Given under our Hands this 24th of April, 1707.

The following Addreſs from the Borough of Totnes was preſented to Her Majeſty by Thomas Coulſon Eſq; one of their Reſentatives in Parliament; introduced by the Rt. Hon. Mr. Secretary Harley.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor and Burgeſſes of Your Majeſty's ancient Borough of Totnes, and alſo the Vicar and other Principal Inhabitants of the ſaid Town and Pariſh, do preſume to congratulate Your Majeſty, That the Treaty of an Union between Your Two Kingdoms of England and Scotland, (which for above an Hundred Years paſt hath been in vain attempted) is finiſhed in Your Majeſty's Auſpicious Reign. And we do humbly aſſure Your Majeſty, that we do ſincerely Wiſh it may be attended with all thoſe great and glorious Conſequences propoſed by Your Majeſty therein, even a laſting Bleſſing to the whole Iſland, a great Addition to its Wealth and Power, and a firm Security to the Proteſtant Religion.

The following Addreſs from the Borough of St. Ives was preſented to Her Majeſty by the Rt. Hon. the Earl of Stamford.

OF

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgeſſes, and other Inhabitants, of Your Majeſty's Borough of St. Ives, in the County of Cornwall.

WE Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, do moſt humbly and heartily congratulate Your Majeſty's Joy and Satisfaction in the happy Concluſion of the long deſir'd Union of the Two famous Kingdoms of Great Britain.

We now humbly crave Leave to rejoyce with Your Majeſty for the Succeſs of Your Councils, nothing inferior to that of Your Arms; for thereby You have accompliſhed that which in former Times hath been in vain attempted, and have thereby laid a Foundation of Honour, Riches, Power and Strength, to Your Kingdom of Great Britain.

And we heartily pray, That Your Majeſty may long live and reign over us; and that You and all Your Subjects may enjoy the Benefit, and reap the Fruit and Advantage of this happy Union. In Witneſs whereof we have cauſed our Common Seal to be hereunto affixed, this 19th Day of April, in the 6th Year of Your Majeſty's Reign, Annoq; Dom. 1707.

The following Addreſs from the Borough of Ludlow was preſented to Her Majeſty by Sir Thomas Powys, one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Bayliffs, Burgeſſes, and Commonalty, of Your ancient and ever loyal Corporation of Ludlow, in the County of Salop.

Moſt Dread Sovereign,

SUch is the Happineſs of Your Majeſty's Auſpicious and Benign Reign, that every Year ſome Publick Bleſſing hath given Your Subjects a juſt Occaſion of Addreſſing to Your Majeſty with their Congratulations on the glorious Succeſs of Your Arms abroad, and Councils at home.

For the latter of which, we humbly approach Your Majeſty at preſent, not doubting alſo, before the end of the enſuing Campaign, (by God's great Bleſſing) to congratulate Your Majeſty on the farther Succeſs and Progreſs of the other. The Reduction of France to Terms of Reaſon, and the Union of Your Majeſty's Two ancient Kingdoms of England and Scotland, were reſerved by Providence to be the laſting Glories (amongſt other Things) of Your Majeſty's Reign. No wonder that this happy Union now ſucceeded, when firſt our Hearts throughout the Iſland were all united in Duty, Loyalty and Affection, to Your Majeſty. We hope from henceforth we ſhall all be true Britains, and act unanimouſly for the common Good, Proſperity and Welfare, of this happy Iſland of united Great Britain.

May Length of Days, and all true Bleſſings, attend Your Majeſty; And as we now are become one People, under one Queen, the beſt of Monarchs, may we ſtill, (in God's due time) influenced by Your Majeſty's moſt pious Example, be united farther under one Church, the beſt of Churches, (of whom Your Majeſty is the glorious Patron) the Church of England as by Law eſtabliſhed; which is the hearty Wiſh and united Prayer of us Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful Subjects. In Teſtimony whereof, we have, at a Common Council held for this Town this 22d Day of April, in the Sixth Year of Your Majeſty's moſt happy Reign over us, cauſed the Common Seal of the ſaid Town to be hereunto affixed.

The following Addreſs from the Juſtices of the Peace, and Gentlemen of the Grand Jury for the County of Weſtmerland, was preſented to Her Majeſty by the Rt. Hon. the Lord High Treaſurer.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Juſtices of the Peace, and the Gentlemen of the Grand Jury for the County of Weſtmerland, at the General Quarter Seſſions of the Peace holden at Kendall for the ſaid County, April 25. 1707.

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty,

WE Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects do moſt humbly and heartily congratulate Your Majeſty upon the happy Concluſion of the long deſired Union of Your ancient Kingdoms of England and Scotland; A Work of great Glory to Your Majeſty's Reign, and of great Advantage to the Proteſtant Religion, and the whole United Body of Great Britain; and particularly to theſe Northern Counties, to whom Scotland, when Enemies, have been often troubleſome Neighbours, and now, by Your wiſe Councils, we aſſure our ſelves will become as good Friends.

And we do moſt zealouſly give God Thanks, that a Work ſo difficult as to baffle the wiſeſt Attempts of former Ages, ſhould be ſo ſucceſsfully finiſhed by Your Majeſty; and conclude, that Divine Providence hath reſerved this great Bleſſing upon Great Britain for Your Majeſty's Reign; and by this Addition of Strength, will enable You to command Peace, according to Your own Terms, from the now tottering Pride of France.

And we beg Leave to aſſure Your Majeſty of our Reſolution in all Things to behave our ſelves as becomes good Neighbours, and dutiful Subjects to the beſt of Queens; and to vie or ſtrive with them in nothing but in offering Prayers to God for the long Continuance of Your Glorious Reign over us.

A very dutiful and loyal Addreſs from the Preſident and Members of Her Majeſty's Council of Barbadoes; And a like Addreſs from the Lieutenant-Governour, Council and Aſſembly, of Her Majeſty's Iſland of Nevis, in the behalf of themſelves, and others the Inhabitants of the ſaid Iſland, have been preſented to Her Majeſty by Sir John Jennings, Rear-Admiral of the Blue Squadron of Her Majeſty's Fleet.

All which Addreſſes Her Majeſty received very graciouſly.

Vienna, April 23. N. S. The Earl of Manchester, Her Majeſty of Great-Britain's Ambaſſador-Extraordinary to the Republick of Venice, arrived here Two Days ago from Francktort, and has received the Viſits of the Foreign Miniſters and other Perſons of Quality at this Court. There is an Account from Hungary, That a Body of the Malecontents, commanded by Count Caroli, having attack'd one of 3500 Raſcians near Kezkemet, the latter made ſo good a Defence, that the Enemy were ſoon entirely routed; and retiring to Kezkemet, the Raſcians purſued them thither, and entring the Place with 'em, made a great Slaughter of them, Count Caroli himſelf narrowly eſcaping, and afterwards ſet Fire to the Town.

Alt-Ranſtad, April 27. On Sunday the 24th Inſtant, in the Evening, the Duke of Marlborough took his Leave of the Court of Hanover, and came away at Four the next Morning. His Grace lay that Night at Halberſtadt, where he was Complimented by the Magiſtrates. Yeſterday Morning he continued his Journey to Hall, where his Grace was met by Mr. Robinſon, Envoy-Extraordinary from Her Majeſty of Great-Britain; Count Zinzendorf Envoy from the Emperor, and Monſieur Cranenberg the Dutch Miniſter. After Dinner his Grace receiv'd the Compliments of the Magiſtrates and of the Univerſity; then proceeded hither, accompanied by Mr. Robinſon and Monſieur Cranenberg. He went directly to Count Piper's Quarters; and after ſome Conference with him, came to the Quarters the King had ordered to be prepared for him. This Morning my Lord Duke was Complimented upon his Arrival by the Miniſters and General Officers, and about Ten a Clock had his Firſt Audience of the King, which laſted near Two Hours; and after Dining with His Majeſty, his Grace had a Second Audience, at which were Count Piper, and Monſieur Hermelin, the Two chief Miniſters, and Mr. Robinſon. Since this laſt Audience, his Grace has ſpent the whole Evening in Viſits to Count Piper, and the other Miniſters, and General Officers, and is perfectly ſatisfied with his Reception. Count Wackerbach Lieutenant-General of King Auguſtus's Forces, and his Envoy to the Court of Vienna, came hither this Afternoon with a Compliment from his Maſter, intimating, that he would be to Night at Leipſick; where his Grace intends to wait on His Majeſty to Morrow Morning, and to return hither to Dinner.

Great

Leipſick, April 30. The 28th Inſtant his Grace the Duke of Marlborough came hither from Alt-Ranſtad, to wait on King Auguſtus, with whom he had a Private Conference of about Half an Hour; and then returned to Count Piper's Quarters, where he dined. In the Evening his Grace ſupp'd with Felt-Marſhal Reinſchield. The 29th his Grace was viſited by Count Piper, Felt-Marſhal Reinſchield, Felt-Marſhal Ogilvi, and ſeveral General Officers and Perſons of Quality; and after having dined with Baron Gortz, had his Audience of Leave of the King of Sweden. Before it was ended, King Staniſlaus came in, and was complimented by his Grace; who ſoon after took his Leave, came hither, and thence, without making any Stay, proceeded on his Journey to Berlin.

Berlin, April 30. The King of Pruſſia came yeſterday to Charlottenbourg from Linum, where his Majeſty has been diverting himſelf with Shooting. The Prince and Princeſs Royal removed likewiſe yeſterday to Charlottenbourg with their whole Court: And his Excellency the Lord Raby, Her Majeſty of Great-Britain's Ambaſſador Extraordinary is alſo gone thither. His Grace the Duke of Marlborough is expected there this Evening from Leipſick, and Preparations are made for his Reception.

Bruſſels, May 5. Monſieur d'Auverquerque has been Indiſpoſed, but is now upon Recovery. The 3d Inſtant Monſieur Geldermalſen, Monſieur Goſſinga, and Baron Harvelt, 3 of the Deputies from the States General that are to be with the Army, ſet out from hence, in order to give the neceſſary Directions for the entire demoliſhing the Lines and other Fortifications the French made in theſe Countries while they were in their Poſſeſſion. The Enemy are making great Magazines of Corn and other Proviſions at Mons. Their General Officers are ordered to be there by the middle of this Month; about which time they give out that they ſhall take the Field. Letters from Madrid of the 18th paſt ſay, the Allies have made themſelves Maſters of Villena, a Town in Valentia. There are Reports at Mons of an Action in Spain, in which, it is ſaid, the Confederates got the Advantage.

Hague, May 6. N. S. Mr. Howe, Her Majeſty of Great-Britain's Envoy-Extraordinary to the Elector of Hanover, arrived here from thence the 2d Inſtant. Our Advices from the Netherlands ſay, the Preparations were continued on both ſides for opening the Campaign. Letters from Paris ſay, A Declaration had been publiſh'd there, relating to ſome new Orders about the Money-Bills; which had given ſo general a Diſſatisfaction, that it was believed the Court would be obliged to repeal it. Theſe Letters give an Account of the Death of Monſieur Pointis, and of the Chevalier d'Aubeterre; which laſt was the eldeſt Lieutenant-General in the French Service.

St. James's, April 28. This Day his Excellency Ahmed Ben Ahmed Cardenaſh, Ambaſſador-Extraordinary from the Emperor of Fez and Morocco, &c. had a private Audience of Leave of Her Majeſty: Being introduced by the Rt. Hon. the Earl of Sunderland, Principal Secretary of State; and conducted by Dr. Inglis, Marſhal of the Ceremonies.

After which he had a like Audience of Leave of His Royal Highneſs: To which he was likewiſe conducted by Dr. Inglis, Marſhal of the Ceremonies.

Whitehall, April 28. Her Majeſty has been pleas'd to grant Her Commiſſion to his Royal Highneſs Prince George of Denmark, Lord High Admiral of England; the Rt. Hon. William Lord Cowper, Keeper of the Great Seal of England, and the Lord Chancellor of England, or Lord-Keeper of the Great Seal of England, for the Time being; Sidney Earl of Godolphin, Lord High Treaſurer of England, and the Lord High Treaſurer of England for the Time being; Thomas Earl of Pembroke and Montgomery, Preſident of Her Majeſty's Council, and the Preſident of the Council for the Time being; His Grace John Duke of Newcaſtle, Keeper of Her Majeſty's Privy-Seal, and the Lord-Keeper of the Privy-Seal for the Time being; the Lord High Admiral of England that hereafter ſhall be for the Time being; the Rt. Hon. Charles Earl of Sunderland, one of Her Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State; Thomas Earl of Stamford; Robert Harley Eſquire, one of Her Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, and Her Majeſty's Principal Secretaries for the Time being; the Firſt Commiſſioner of the Treaſury that hereafter ſhall be for the Time being; the Firſt Commiſſioner of the Admiralty that hereafter ſhall be for the Time being; the Rt. Rev. Father in God, Henry Lord Biſhop of London, and the Biſhop of London for the Time being; the Rt. Hon. William Lord Dartmouth; Henry Lord Herbert, of Cherbury; Henry Boyle Eſquire, Chancellor and Under Treaſurer of Her Majeſty's Exchequer, and the Chancellor of the Exchequer for the Time being; and Sir Philip Meadows Kt. George Stepney, John Pulteney, and Robert Monkton, Eſquires; or any Three or more of them, for promoting the Trade of this Her Majeſty's Kingdom, and for inſpecting and improving Her Majeſty's Plantations in America and elſewhere.

Her Majeſty has been pleaſed to conſtitute Sir Simon Harcourt Kt. Her Attorney General, and to appoint Sir James Montague Kt. to ſucceed him in the Place and Office of Her Majeſty's Sollicitor General.

The Honourable Spencer Compton Eſq; is appointed to be Treaſurer and Receiver-General to His Royal Highneſs Prince George of Denmark, and Paymaſter to Her Majeſty's Penſioners.

All Perſons owing Arrears of Rent for Wine-Licences, or whoſe Licences are expired, are hereby deſired to take Notice, That if they do not pay their ſaid Arrears, and renew their ſaid Wine-Licences with all ſpeed, they will be forthwith ſued at Law for the ſame.

By the Receiver-General for Prizes.

NOtice is hereby given, That the Officers and Company of Her Majeſty's Ship Litchfield will, on Thurſday the 8th Inſtant, be paid their Proportions of the Prize Ships St. Andrew of Oſtende and Reynold of Dunkirk; according to the Directions in Her Majeſty's moſt Gracious Declaration for the Encouragement of Her Ships of War, &c.

The Court of Aſſiſtants of the Governour and Company for making Hollow Sword Blades in England do hereby give Notice, That they will Advance Money upon Yearly Tallies, and Diſcount Foreign Bills at 4 per Cent. and Diſcount Inland Bills and Notes, or Lend Money upon Tallies, or other good Securities, at 5 per Cent. according to the Orders hung up at their Houſe in Birchin-lane, London.
